

June and Sidney Crown Award Regulations

Establishment

Foundation

On demitting office as President in 1998, Dr June Crown and her husband, Dr Sidney Crown, generously endowed an award starting in 1999 to be known as the 'June and Sidney Crown Award'.

Funding

The endowment for the award shall be held in a fund to be known as the 'June and Sidney Crown Award Fund' from which either capital or income may be used to provide for the award.

Regulations

Purpose

To assist young members of the Faculty to gain experience or further training outside the United Kingdom.

Eligibility

All members of the Faculty in good standing under the age of 35 at the time of application. Preference will be given to those working within the National Health Service.

Value

The current minimum value is £150 with a possibility of this being increased dependent upon the applicant's submission.

Application

Applications to comprise:

- a) a full curriculum vitae of the applicant
- b) a travel plan specifying further experience or training to be gained, the place(s) to be visited and an outline of the expected benefit

Frequency of award

The award is given annually, funds permitting.

Closing date

Please see here for closing date for entries.

Adjudication

Adjudication to be undertaken by a committee comprising:

- (a) Registrar
- (b) International Registrar
- (c) Chair of Specialty Registrars Committee (unless an applicant for the award)

Criteria for award

- a) The award shall be made for the proposal judged to be the most worthwhile in terms of experience or training in public health. Applications to cover travel costs to attend international conferences and scientific meetings will not be entertained.
- b) In the absence of applications of sufficient merit, the adjudication committee may decide that no award be made.

Announcement

The decision of the adjudication committee will be reported to the Board and announced at the Annual Faculty Awards Ceremony.

Duties of award holder

The award holder shall submit a blog to the Faculty, for publication at the editor's discretion, with a brief account of the insights gained from the experience or training overseas undertaken with the aid of the award.

Amendment to regulations

No variation may be made to these regulations except by the Board of the Faculty.

Applications should be sent to the Education Team at educ@fph.org.uk

For further information please contact the Education team via email at educ@fph.org.uk or by phone on 020 3696 1451.